

Our Experience is Your Advantage

Kessler has provided insurance programs and services to the Meat Industry since 1956. This long term relationship has helped us to develop unique programs and acquire an expertise in this business sector. Our firm is endorsed as the exclusive Property Casualty Broker for the National Meat Association. We are also members of the American Meat Institute.

Kessler is a service-oriented organization with effective risk management solutions for your business. Using "A" rated carriers our program includes:

- Accidental Contamination/Malicious Tampering
Ammonia Contamination
- Facility Power Failure
- Full Spoilage Coverage
- Pollutant Clean Up, including in transit
- Product Recall Expense including cost of product and gross profits
- Rehabilitation Expense
- Transit
- Unlimited capacity for Boiler & Machinery Limits including

Kessler has developed procedures and safety programs to help our clients minimize claims. We customize risk management and insurance programs aimed at keeping your business running seamlessly. Kessler loss control programs include:

- Blood borne Pathogen Safety
- Claims advocacy
- Crisis Response/Consultant Expenses
- Design Lockout/Tagout Program
- Ergonomic Evaluation
- First Aid and CPR Training
- Fleet safety consultation
- Forklift Training
- Implementation of Incentive Programs
- Injury and illness prevention

Kessler. The clear choice to meet your insurance needs.